Additionally, please stick to the formal requirements presented below; especially concerning citation and graphics. Manuscripts disregarding the guidelines totally may be returned for revision prior to any reviewing activity.

Organization of the manuscript

These guidelines for research papers are flexible, especially for case studies. Manuscript is to be arranged in the following order:

1. Title in Capital Letters
2. Author(s) Name
3. Complete Name of Institution(s)
4. Abstract
5. Keywords
6. Introduction
7. Materials and Methods
8. Results
9. Discussion
10. Conclusion
11. References

To structure your manuscript, please try to restrict yourself to a maximum of three levels of headlines.

Title page:

The title, name(s) of the author(s) and affiliations and mailing address, an asterisk (*) should be added to the right of the corresponding author's name. When there are two or more authors and they belong to more than one affiliation, his or her affiliation should be indicated by superscripts 1, 2, 3 ... placed after each author's name and before each affiliation.

Abstract:

Articles must include an Abstract of 250 words. The abstract should state briefly the purpose of the research, the principal results and major conclusions. Abstract should not repeat the information which is already present in the title. References should be avoided.

Keywords:

Immediately after the abstract, provide a maximum of 6 key words.

Introduction

The Introduction presents the purpose of the studies and relationship to previous work in the field. It is not required to incorporate an extensive review of the literature. Use only recent references and provide the most salient information to allow the readers to understand and evaluate the purpose and results of the present study.

Materials and Methods:

The Materials and Methods section should be brief and concise with sufficient technical information. Only new methods should be described in detail. Cite previously published procedures in References.

Results:

The Results section should include the rationale or design, optimization, validation of the experiments as well as the results of the experiments.

Discussion:

Discussion section should focus on the interpretation of the results with proper justification. The Results and Discussion sections may be combined into one section.

Conclusion:

Concisely summarizes the principal conclusions of the work and highlights the wider implications. This section should not merely duplicate the abstract.

References and footnotes:

Maximum 35 and 75 references for original research paper/case study and review papers, respectively.

Citation in text:

Please ensure that every reference cited in the text is also present in the reference list (and vice versa). Citations in the text contain only authors' names and year of publication (Author, Year) [e.g. (Leker, 2001), (Bröring and Leker, 2006) or (Bröring et al., 2006) when three or more authors].
