INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform rather reveals, so it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. The present article is the outcome of creative writing meant for lay readers. As such free style is the methodology adopted so that pleasure of reading can be enjoyed by the common mass. As you know well that Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal essayist, wrote many essays and notably, Of Love, Of Friendship, Of Ambition, Of Studies, etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation i.e., his unique style kindled the imagination already in me and encouraged me as well to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.

ARTICLE

Slavery is a primitive concept. History is the witness of it since time immemorial. History deals with 'his story' not 'her story'. It describes the name and fame of kings seldom queens. It is the story of kings and clowns but never of heroines. Thus history is blind, biased and partial as well. Woman due to natural partiality is weaker than man. Further, a woman becomes pregnant but never a man who merely enjoys just to get physiological relief. But labor pain is experienced by a woman only. Thus nature is not impartial. There are two types of people- one likes to torture and the other likes to be tortured. A woman belongs to the second category. A woman bears silently the torture of man for the sake of the family. A woman considers the family and child of her own. But her husband is quite indifferent of his liability. Thus, a man, of the patriarchal society, takes the advantage of this noble sentiment of woman shamelessly.

In an undeveloped country, especially in the third world, where human rights have no existence at all in practice, women more especially widows face different unprecedented problems, injustice and countless tortures as were faced by the slaves of the dark continent of Africa. A slave has no right except imposed duty and obligation. Thus, the condition of a poor widow is beggar's description.

Tons of papers may be used for research works. Infinite numbers of conferences may be conducted. But until and unless women get proper education, later on earn sufficiently and become economically independent and can take all sorts of decision undisturbed throughout their lives only then they can be the corner stone of society as desired by every nation and thereby UNICEF at large.

The fate of girls irrespective of rich or poor country is more or less same. They are victims of ill fate, either, directly or indirectly. In this world there is no women who was not sexually harassed by men even for a single time. Here lies the secret shame of powerful patriarchal society. Economic dependency is a curse. A woman becomes independent only when she earns money. In a patriarchal society women are fully dependent on men and thereby society at large. They have no security at all. They don't have any choice but voice of men are final. They experience voice of father, husband and son chronologically throughout their lives. But the so-called civilized society keeps mum and observes silently and shamelessly. This is the real and bitter truth. Mother is the first teacher of a child. If mother remains backward then a nation can never prosper and go forward. Here, to rescue the women state should intervene. State should be the guardian of adolescent girls. If the girls get the chance for their full blooming, only then they will flourish. A healthy and educated mother gives birth to good and healthy baby who is the most coveted asset of every nation. If this is not done then even God will not be able to rescue them. All the mishaps viz., infanticide, child labor, child marriage, trafficking will continue uninterruptedly.

CONCLUSIONS

Further, social dogma viz., virginity, chastity, widowhood, divorce etc. are meant for woman only just to corner them.
