

OF DISABILITY AND REHABILITATION

DIBAKAR PAL ¹

¹ PHD STUDENT IN INDIA.

ABSTRACT

If the disabled are rehabilitated properly then there will be no problem. Actually it depends upon the perception of the people and society as a whole. Such services to the ailing humanity enhance good wishes and awaken moral values already in man. Poor widow, deserted women caused by trafficking should properly be rehabilitated.

Keywords: Disability, Rehabilitation.

INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform rather reveals, so it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. The present article is the outcome of creative writing meant for lay readers. As such free style is the methodology adopted so that pleasure of reading can be enjoyed by the common mass. As you know well that Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal essayist, wrote many essays and notably, Of Love, Of Friendship, Of Ambition, Of Studies, etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation i.e., his unique style kindled the imagination already in me and encouraged me as well to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.

ARTICLE

Disability is the thing or lack that prevents one's doing something. Sometimes it is legal disqualification. Again it is the physical incapacity caused by injury or disease. Also, it may be due to psychological disorder. Thus disability prevents from leading normal life.

Physiologically disabled person can somehow tackle the various situations of life. But psychological disorder renders a person fully dependent on the mercy of the society.

Disability is the curse to the society. A philanthropist opines that like a normal human being a disabled person has also the right to live on this planet. It is sent percent correct.

But who will take the responsibility? In a communist country state takes the responsibility. But in a democratic country – Everybody's mother is nobody's mother.

However, in the perfect democracy where human rights are honoured disabled person are safe. A handicapped issue gets the care till its parents are alive. But after the death of parents there is none to look after them. If the society takes the responsibility of orphans they will exist otherwise they will die unfed, unwept, unsung and unknown as well.

In fact the disabled persons suffer due to lack of infrastructure. Also, people should have the perception to help the disabled or distressed persons. If there remains infrastructure, like hospital, to care them then there is no problem. Also, trained personnel is required to look after them. But service attitude along with kindness, fellow feeling, moral values, bearing capacity and above all humanity are must. Now a question arises, since they are liability to the society whether the state should kill them or help to survive. The reply lies in the matter of old parents. Parents when they were active, they earned and support the issues. Now issues are grown up and do not need the care of parents. Senior citizens don't contribute rather state has to offer pension. Now since they do not give any output they should be killed. If it is so then the society will be infested with the inhuman only. The children will not learn reciprocation, responsibility, etc. Also the issues will have to face the awkward situation at their old age due to their hire and fire policy. And for this action there will be no parents, no grandparents, no uncle, no aunt, etc. Only the society will be crowded by cruel, of cruel and for cruel and shameless barbarians.

A child is not liable for its birth. As such if an embryo is identified as abnormal then it may be killed. But some religion may object it. Poor people get help. Similarly disabled should get assistance. Actually an individual realizes it when his son is disabled. If a civilized society does not help the down trodden and disabled people then the society itself is disabled. It is a shame of so-called civilization for which man expresses pride untiringly. So a society should not be boasting of its ability. Because, ability without feasibility is also disability.

CONCLUSION

Disability may be due to heredity factors. Sometimes it is the outcome of leading fast life.

A child is dependent. Similarly a disabled is also dependent. School children should visit the home for disabled. Then they will learn how to serve people. This noble feeling will pave their way for enjoying better life. If the disabled are rehabilitated properly then there will be no problem. Actually it depends upon the perception of the people and society as a whole. Such services to the ailing humanity enhance good wishes and awaken moral values already in man. Poor widow, deserted women caused by trafficking should properly be rehabilitated.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Pal, Dibakar is a Retired Executive Magistrate in India and PhD Student. Though he is a Civil Servant yet he is genuinely interested in diversified academic fields. As such, he holds master degrees in M.Sc(Math), M.A(English), M.A(Bengali), M.B.A(HRD), M.C.A, P.G.D.M.M(Marketing), L.L.B, D.C.E(Creative Writing), M. Phil (Business Management), UGC- NET(Management)-2008. He attended an International Conference at IIT, Mumbai, India and five International Conferences at U.S.A; though he gets invitation to present papers in many International Conferences at home and abroad round the year. He presents papers on Computer Science, Management, English Literature, Linguistic, Philosophy, Philology, Psychology, Sociology, Humanities and Poems. He presented a paper on Computer Science and Chaired in 2007 IEEE Conference at Richmond, Virginia, U.S.A. Also another paper on Fuzzy Logic was accepted by IEEE Conference 2010 at USA. He serves as Session Chair, Presider and Reviewer. He serves as reviewer of American Marketing Association, Journal of Common Ground; Australia, IEEE Transactions, IJEAPS, AJHC, Journal of Supercomputing.

He has more than two hundred (200) publications and among these one is as Monograph in International Journal on Management Science, one Monograph is in Journal of the World Universities Forum, one is in Consumer Behavior, two are in Computer Science, one is in Neuroscience, one is in Linguistic and rests are Creative Writing of English Literature. In Creative Writing two papers have been incorporated in SSRN's Top Ten Download List three times in November, December 2010 and April 2011. In ResearchGate his papers have reached a milestone through more than 23350 reads. Scholars' Press and Lambert Academic Publishing House, Germany have published twelve books between the months July to December, 2016. New Texas, A Journal of Literature and Culture, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, Texas, USA has published ten essays in February 2018. International Educational Scientific Research Journal (E-ISSN: 2455-295X) publishes Creative Nonfictions every month regularly. Now he is pursuing his PhD thesis in Business Management in University of Calcutta, India. Also he is currently focussed on the Extension Works of Huffman Code i.e., Coding Theory and Pattern Recognition through Fuzzy Logic (Pattern Recognition, Image Processing, etc) of Computer Science.

His hobby is Creative Writing (Nonfiction). He says:

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform rather it reveals, so it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. As you know well that, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal writer, wrote many essays, and notably "Of Love", "Of Friendship", "Of Ambition", "Of Studies", etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation and his unique style kindled imagination and inspired me to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.

REFERENCES

No references, since the present article is the outcome of Creative Writing.