ABSTRACT

Guideline is a rule. It is followed for transparency so that nobody can raise question. If there would be no guide line different people would follow different avenues causing ultimate problems. In absence of guideline nepotism, corruption, haphazard, hotchpotch, unethical deeds, unlawful works, etc. prevail.

Keywords: Guideline, General Rule, Principle, Advice, Criterion, Direction.

INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform rather reveals, so it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. The present article is the outcome of creative writing meant for lay readers. As such free style is the methodology adopted so that the pleasure of reading can be enjoyed by the common mass. As you know well that, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal writer, wrote many essays, and notably "Of Love", "Of Friendship", "Of Ambition", "Of Studies", etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation and his unique style kindled imagination and inspired me to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.

ARTICLE

Guideline is a principle or criterion guiding or directing action. Some people like to guide and some others like to be guided. In fact a man having brain guides. But a dull headed is to guide. An intelligent person if not properly guided then he becomes either diverted genius or perverted Satan or misguided missile.

Guide line is of several types viz., (1).General rule, (2). Principle, (3). Piece of advice.

Guideline is for common people who needs guidance for they can't work independently.

Guide needs also guidance. That guide also needs guidance. It is a chain process. Thus God is the Super or Supreme guide as opined by any religious person.

Guideline is a rule. It is followed for transparency so that no body can raise question. If there would be no guide line different people would follow different avenues causing ultimate problems. In absence of guideline nepotism, corruption, haphazard, hotchpotch, unethical deeds, unlawful works, etc. prevail.

Policy maker prepares guideline. They introduce a guideline with positive attitude. In fact the view of any welfare state is based always on philosophy. Since, the policy maker lacks in practical knowledge many guideline becomes useless. So rectification and amendments are required.

Implementers are the persons who face the trouble of introducing anything following guideline. In many cases guideline faces no problem at all. But sometimes guideline can't be followed. However, an expert can manage any situation. In fact guideline may not be followed strictly. It may vary due to place, time and situation. But the essence must be followed. If the basic principle is not followed properly then it may be presumed that guideline has been violated. In that case the implementer should not proceed further. If he proceeds intentionally then he will be charged for violation of rule. As such regular communication is a must with the authority lest there be no lack of communication causing problems in case of implementation.

Why guideline is required. The reply is lest the solution does not differ. In absence of any rule everybody will follow as per his sweet will. And his sweet will may be sour to others. He will not change his attitude if there is no penalty or punishment.

Autonomous body needs no guidance. They are self-guided. Autonomy is a concept that dwells at the threshold between private and public sector. It takes the good things of both.

In private sector they enjoy much liberty. They are interested about the welfare of self. So they bid farewell to public welfare.

In fact a perfect or super guide do not need guide. But attainment of perfection is very difficult. That is why perfection is always an unattainable ideal. As such very few people can attain it. Only a genius gets its taste.

A good traffic system always follows traffic rule strictly. There must not be any overtake.

The cars must follow speed limit. They will not use electric horn near hospital, school, prayer hall, etc. Violation of traffic rule causes problem due to lateness.

International treaty is fully based on crystal clear guideline. There is no ambiguity or absurdity. A nation that follows guideline properly acquires international repute and is honored everywhere.

In case of the debate, liberty versus guideline, guideline will get the overriding effect. At first follow guide line then enjoy liberty. But converse should not be considered, since liberty is not a personal affair but a social contract.

CONCLUSIONS

Discipline makes a nation great. Guideline is alias of discipline. An educational institution earns reputation only when the students make brilliant result. And the students be successful only when they follow guideline of teachers. The teacher advises the students: never find fault with others, if you want to shine in life, find fault with yourself.

As such, a good student never finds fault with others. He always finds fault with himself. This guideline escorts him to the coveted dreamland.
