INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform, rather it reveals. So it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. This article is an outcome of thinking about creative writing meant for a general readership. As such, I have adopted a free style methodology so that everyone can enjoy the pleasure of reading. As you might know, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal essayist, wrote many essays namely 'Of Love', 'Of Friendship', 'Of Ambition', 'Of Studies', and so on. The multiple-minded genius correctly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be used as themes for essays. But little has been done since his death to continue or finish his monumental task. Bacon's unique individual style of presentation ignited my imagination and encouraged me to write creative essays as a method of relieving a wide range of emotions through catharsis.

ARTICLE

Responsible is having the job or duty of doing something or caring for somebody or something, so that one may be blamed if something goes wrong. It is being the cause of something and so able to be blamed for it e.g. the Minister responsible for environmental issues.

Responsible is to somebody or something having to report to somebody or something with authority or in a higher position and explain to them what one has done e.g. be directly responsible to the president. It is of people or their actions or behaviour capable of being trusted i.e. reliable and sensible. It is needing somebody who can be relied on. It is involving important duties e.g. a highly responsible position or role.

Responsible is answerable or accountable, as for something within one's power or control. It is involving accountability, obligation, or duties e.g. a responsible position. It is chargeable with being the author, cause, agent, occasion or source of something usually followed by for e.g. the moisture that is responsible for the rust. It is having a capacity for moral decisions and therefore accountable.

Responsible is expected or obliged to account for something, to someone. It is able to distinguish between right and wrong and to think and act rationally and hence accountable for one's behaviour. It is readily assuming obligations, duties, etc. It is dependable. It is reliable. It is able to discharge obligations or pay debts or meet business obligations.

Responsible is liable to be called to account to a person, for thing, or absolutely as being in charge or control. It is morally accountable for one's actions. It is capable of rational conduct. It is of good credit, position, or repute. It is respectable. It is evidently trustworthy. It is, often followed by for, being the primary cause e.g. a short circuit was responsible for the power failure. It is, of a ruler or government, not autocratic. It involves obligation or duties e.g. a responsible job.

Responsible implies answerable to person, etc., for something. It deserves the blame or credit of with for. It is governed by a sense of responsibility. It is being a free moral agent. It is able to pay. It is respectable-looking. It is correspondent. It is having the primary cause for result etc. It is involving responsibility e.g. a responsible task.

Responsibility is for somebody or something the state or fact of being responsible. It is to somebody a duty for which a person is responsible e.g. the various responsibilities of the post. It is an instance of being responsible. It is a particular burden of obligation upon a person who is responsible. It is a trust or charge for which one is responsible. It implies reliability or dependability, especially in meeting debts or payments.

Responsibility is condition, quality, fact, or instance of being responsible. It is obligation, accountability, dependability, etc. It is a thing or person that one is responsible for. It is the state or fact of being responsible e.g. refuses all responsibility for it; will take the responsibility of doing it. It implies authority. It is the ability to act independently and make decisions e.g. a job with more responsibility. It is the person or thing for which one is responsible e.g. the food is my responsibility.

Liable, competent and solvent are synonymous to responsible. Also, responsible, answerable and accountable are synonymous.

Responsible applies to one who has been delegated some duty or responsibility by one in authority and who is subject to penalty in case of default. For example: She is responsible for making out the reports. Answerable implies a legal or moral obligation for which one must answer to someone sitting in judgment. For example: He is not answerable for the crimes of his parents. Accountable implies liability for which one may be called to account. For example: You will be held accountable for anything you may say.

On one's own responsibility implies without authorization.

Man is responsible in many ways having different forms and features.

The captain of a ship is responsible for the safety of the passengers. Responsible government protects public interest. A responsible position draws respect. A responsible job or task does not suit all. Also all is not fit for responsible job. A responsible person is respected everywhere by all. A responsible citizen is valued much. One should be responsible for something. Who is responsible for this mistake? The driver is responsible for the safety of his passengers. Parents should be responsible for teaching their children the difference between right and wrong. Who is responsible for this mess? Smoking is responsible for many cases of lung cancer. She is mentally ill and cannot be held responsible for her actions. Behave like responsible citizens or adults. Show a responsible attitude.

Responsibility is of various types having various faces and facets as well. Also it differs with different degrees and dimensions as well.

You can depend on his sense of responsibility. To bring up the child is now your greatest responsibility. The responsibility of the manager/accountant/auditor is very important. They are the guardian of the concerned organisation. Proof-reading is his responsibility. Her new job means taking on more responsibility. It is to take/assume/accept/bear full responsibility for the consequences. The IRA has claimed/admitted responsibility for the attack. A Minister with special responsibility for women's affairs should be vigilant always. The manufacturers disclaim all responsibility for damage caused by misuse. She feels a strong sense of responsibility towards her employees. Our business is a joint/shared responsibility. It's my responsibility to lock the doors. It is charge for which one is responsible e.g. a family is a great responsibility.

Responsibility is a spontaneous matter. It cannot be imposed. However, imposed outcome always lacks in quality both in emotion and action as well. It is difficult to make unwilling horse drink water. He, who will take responsibility, will take of its own. No persuasion is required. But it is very difficult to compel an unwilling soul. A business man thinks for ROI. But a Good Samaritan always helps without any reciprocation. That's why he is great. Here lies his greatness.

Man is singularly responsible may times in many ways from cradle to grave. Many times he is responsible to welcome responsibility. Many times he is responsible to avoid responsibility. Thus one responsibility is replaced by another responsibility. The paradox is that a person is blamed whether he welcomes or avoids responsibility. In this regard he is quite undone. He cannot remain aloof. Responsibility will automatically be upon his shoulder. He may remain stand still. He does not run after responsibility. Rather responsibility runs after him. And he becomes captive. One cannot discharge his duty perfectly. As such one is always blamed. This is the curse. This is the irony of fate.

Some lovers enjoy, but take not any responsibility of the children. This is the because of single parent growing abruptly. Some enjoy but fix liability upon others. A responsible person is kind-hearted. He reciprocates always. He never hopes for return. He never deserts. He rescues the deserted people. He seldom asks for help. Rather he helps the distressed people voluntarily. A gentle man self imposes responsibility, while a callous has to remind it. An evil soul does when its interest is fulfilled. It moves not if its interest serves not.

CONCLUSION

Responsibility is a chief ingredient of an elevated soul. It is a costly personality trait that pays both acceptor and donor. The acceptor gets relief. The donor enjoys psychic force. It is a goodwill that offers social status. Here lies the uniqueness of responsibility.
