INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform rather reveals, so it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. The present article is the outcome of creative writing meant for lay readers. As such free style is the methodology adopted so that the pleasure of reading can be enjoyed by the common mass. As you know well that, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal writer, wrote many essays, and notably "Of Love", "Of Friendship", "Of Ambition", "Of Studies", etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation and his unique style kindled imagination and inspired me to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.

ARTICLE

Prepare is to make or get ready for use, consideration, etc. It is to make ready or assemble food, a meal, etc. for eating. It is to make a person or oneself ready or disposed in some way e.g. prepares students for university; prepared them for a shock. It is to put oneself or things in readiness, get ready e.g. prepare to jump. It is to make a chemical product etc. by a regular process.

Prepare the ground for something is an idiom. It implies to make it possible or easier to develop something.

Be prepared means be ready or willing to do. It is to get lesson, speech, and sermon ready by previous study. It is to get ready by teaching for college, examination, the army, etc. It is to make chemical product etc. by regular process. In music it is lead up to discord by sounding the dissonant note in it as consonant note in preceding chord. It is to prepare oneself or things for, to do, etc.

Proposals are numerous. Purposes are numerous. Persons are numerous. Persons prepare in numerous ways. Persons prepare for various proposals and various purposes in various ways.

For example: I had no time to prepare. Have everything prepared beforehand. The police are preparing for trouble at next week's demonstration. A hotel room is being prepared for them /their arrival. The troops prepared to go into battle. He was in the kitchen preparing lunch.

Prepare the fish by wiping it with a damp paper towel. The committee will prepare the ground for next month's summit. Early experiments with rockets prepared the ground for space travel.

Preparation is the act of doing homework. It is homework. For example: You can't pass an examination without preparation. These injuries have interrupted the team's preparation for next week's match. The advertising campaign is still in preparation. The team has trained hard in preparation for the match. An excellent meal was in preparation. The preparation of the recipe/drug/stage arrangement was a complex affair. Preparations for a journey/war/expedition involve both man and money. Restorative preps are an outcome of nostalgia.

Someone appears in the examination without any preparation. In such a case an ordinary student fails. He is very casual. He sits in the examination, seeing others to sit. He has no seriousness or ambition. He has so many agendas without any preparation. On the other hand an extra-ordinary student succeeds. He has single agenda with full preparation. Thus the two examinees possess diagonally opposite view towards preparation thereby life as a whole.

Preparation for something is the action or process of preparing e.g. the preparation of meals.

Preparation for something is an activity or a thing that is done to prepare for something. For example: The country is making preparations for war or to go war. Was your university course a good preparation for your career?

Preparation is a substance that has specially been prepared for use as e.g. a medicine or drug, a pharmaceutical preparation, a preparation for concealing skin blemishes.

Preparation is a proceeding, measure, or provision by which one prepares for something e.g. preparations for a journey. It is act of preparing e.g. preparatory measures; preparatory school. It is the state of being prepared. For example: I have a few letters to write preparatory to leaving for my destination.

Preparation is something prepared, manufactured, or compounded e.g. a special preparation for treating sunburn. It is a specimen, as an animal body, prepared for scientific examination, dissection, etc. In music, it is the preparation of a dissonance by introducing the dissonant tone as a consonant tone in the proceeding chord. It is the tone so introduced.

In New Testament, it is the day before the Sabbath or other Jewish feast-day. The preparation is the introductory prayers of the Mass or other divine service. It is the devotional exercises introducing an office.

Make preparations means prepare for. It is work done by pupils to prepare for lessons, as part of school routine. It is the preliminary study of prescribed class work. It is substance, e.g. food or medicine, specially prepared. In music it is note sounded in preparing of a discord.

Confidence paves the way for better preparation. It is all and everything. Confidence compensates the deficit. Confidence wins everywhere. Confidence costs nothing, Rather it cures free of cost. It is just like placebo as is practised and prescribed in homeopathy. No confidence means, no win. Thus, where there is no confidence, deficit i.e. frustration reigns there.

Preparation is all and everything. Extempore speech is possible only when thorough knowledge is achieved. It needs presence of mind. Presence of mind is the outcome of prolonged preparation. Presence of mind may be inherited. Sincere practice sharpens it.

Where preparation ends extempore begins. Night appears with the sun set. Similarly, extempore capacity rises with the set i.e. completion of preparation.

Preparatory means preparing for something. It is done in advance of something. It is previous. Preparatory school is where pupils are prepared for higher school, for college or university. It is in a preparatory manner e.g. am packing it up preparatory to sending it by post.

There are preparatory investigations. There are preparatory measures. There are preparatory meetings. A preparatory course for students entering the university next year is very essential and important as well. A series of preparatory sketches pave the way for final image.

Preparatory to something means in preparation for something. It implies in advance of something. For example: Security checks had been carried out preparatory to the President's arrival.

Preparatory implies serving or designed to prepare e.g. preparatory arrangements. It means preliminary. It is introductory e.g. preparatory remarks. It is of or pertaining to training that preparers for more advanced education. It is undergoing preparation, especially for college entrance e.g. a preparatory student.

Prep is preparation of school work. It is time during which this is done. It is a preparatory i.e. prep school. Preparatory school or prep school, in Britain, is a private school for pupils between 7 and 13 years old whose parents pay for their education. In the US it is a usually private school in which pupils are prepared for college or university.

Prepared is made ready, fit, or suitable. It means ready. Be prepared is to be ready, or be willing, to do something.

Prepared for something implies able to deal with something. For example: I knew there were problems, but I was not prepared for this! We will be better prepared next time. Prepared to do something implies willing to do something. I am prepared to lend you the money if you promise to pay it back next week. They seem prepared to compromise. Prepared means done, made, written, etc in advance. The spokesman read out a prepared statement. I often buy prepared meals at the supermarket.

Preparedness is the state of being prepared, ready or willing e.g. his preparedness to break the law. It means readiness especially of preparations for possible hostilities e.g. the troops are in a state of preparedness. It is a state of readiness, especially for war. It is specific possession of sufficient armed forces, material, etc. for waging war, as by stockpiling weapons.

Preparative is serving to prepare. It implies preliminary that which prepares the way. It implies preparatory. It is something that prepares. It is a preparation. It is a signal on a drum, bugle, etc., as an order to make ready. It is a preparatory act.

Preparator is a person who prepares a specimen for scientific examination or exhibition. The irony is that the preparator or food maker i.e. chef remains unknown rather the hotel manager acquires name and fame. They live in green room. They die behind the curtain. They are just like nameless thousands who built the pyramids.

A strong person needs no preparation to wrestle with a weak person. A rich needs no preparation to buy anything. Where there is uncertainty there requires all kinds of preparation. Scarcity demands preparation. Where chance is single, value of preparation is immense. In case of last train a passenger must be prepared to avail that one. Since student life is once, a person must prepare cautiously. A student must prepare, otherwise he will fail successfully in the examination and thereby failure will be his lifelong ever companion till he breaths his last. Misfortune dogs him wherever he goes.

Mental preparation is the greatest of all. It is a great factor to absorb any kind of severe shock even. It is a chief ingredient or precious trait of any character. All cannot absorb or bear any shock even be informed well in advance. It depends on mental capacity or personality.

Ultimately it depends on preparation. Lack of preparation may cause mental setback due to suddenness of dismal tidings. A person may depart home or family in search of divinity. A person may become insane. A half mad man may become full mad and may leave for unknown voyage.

Each preparation has its uniqueness. One cannot and does not match with other. Every person differs in style and manner thereby differs in uniqueness that determines individual difference. Again, for the same purpose preparation differs. It is due to the fact that 'many men many minds'. Conversely, for the different purpose preparation is identical in nature.

The reason plays behind this venture is 'great men think alike'. Thus preparation depends on whims, dictation and direction as well.

CONCLUSION

Preparation is not all. It needs talent. It demands temperament for its implementation. All tries. Few succeed. An intelligent person wins in the competition. The topper does not write different thing. He writes differently. Unique is his preparation.
