ABSTRACT

A smart person is sly more than intelligent. Thus all intelligent is smart but all sly may not be intelligent and thereby not smart at all. A smart person is very scrupulous. He has no moral principle. He pretends. He sounds much with tall talks and fluent talks. He works less, talks more and lies most. He has no pity at all. He is modern. He is selfish. He is self-centered. He cheats and gains through smartness. But this temporal gain is temporary. He is, as if, a bye product of jet age alias fast live.

KEYWORDS: SMARTNESS, SLY, INTELLIGENT, ALERT, CLEVER, WITTY, QUICK, SHREWD, SHARP, STYLISH, FASHION.

INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform rather reveals, so it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. The present article is the outcome of creative writing meant for lay readers. As such free style is the methodology adopted so that the pleasure of reading can be enjoyed by the common mass. As you know well that, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal writer, wrote many essays, and notably "Of Love", "Of Friendship", "Of Ambition", "Of Studies", etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation and his unique style kindled imagination and inspired me to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.

ARTICLE

Smartness is a personality trait. A smart person is intelligent, alert, clever and witty. He is quick, shrewd and sharp in his dealings. He is a stylish and keeps with the current fashion.

A smart person likes to live in style. Also, he likes to die in style. He can hardly think any movement without style. Plain living and high thinking are the motto of a scholar.

Common people exist with plain living. But a smart person, even in spite of poor livelihood, maintains smart living that isolates him from common people and crowns him with uncommonness. He is always cautious to keep up status and spend much time and money for it. If a smart person be rich in beauty, money and thinking as well, then he will be greatest of all. Sometimes, such a rich person is seen to be dangerously brilliant or brilliantly dangerous or both simultaneously to achieve his objectives by any means fair or foul. Such a person is a diverted genius. He is simply a misguided missile. His gesture, posture, look and especially his hair style are quite attractive which cause heart throb of a young girl and increases its beat madly. That's why a young girl is seen to be attracted by a smart guy. And this is equally truer in case of a young man. This attraction is quite common and nature of youth.

Smartness is a technique to conquer the head and heart of all of contemporary period. In fact it is an art. Practice of this art offers a person his uniqueness blessed with rare individual style. This style differs from person to person. A smart person uses this style widely for his mundane existence. Also, smartness is to cause or feel a sharp pain in a part of the body. It is to feel upset about a criticism, defeat, etc.

A smart person is clean, tidy and well dressed. He wears quite formal clothes. Generally, a person looks very smart in his new clothes e.g., a smart dress, a smart suit, similarly a smart car, etc. An enlightened person becomes brighten more with new dress. Even a fool looks good with smart wear and it compensates its deficiency. This pretension of fool lasts till it remains silent. Smart answer, smart idea manifest intelligence. Smart money is what clever people invest in or money paid or exacted as a penalty or compensation.

Smart restaurants, smart hotels, smart shops i.e., smart set are connected with fashionable rich people. Rich people visit this places and spend lavishly thus to serve and satisfy their egotistic attitude and thereby draw the attention and envy, they relish.

A smart person is keen in bargaining. He is a smart talker. He gives a smart answer.

Thus, he is quick to take advantage. He is unscrupulous to the point of dishonesty. In good repair means showing bright colors, new paint, etc. e.g., a smart red bicycle. Set a smart space, a smart smack with the whip, a smart rebuke from the teacher signifies quick and sharp. Smart card is a plastic card with a built-in microprocessor, enabling access to computerized data, instant transfer of funds, etc. Smart drug is a drug supposedly capable of enhancing cognitive performance. Smart aleck is a person who acts as if he or she is very clever or knows everything. Smart under an injustice means be hurt and made angry.

Good dress enriches glamour and thereby smartness but seldom enhances goodness. But good speaker is the real smart. He is smart because of the fact of his well conversant nature. Good dress is meant for compensation. He who has nothing to do dresses well.

Those who hanker after knowledge get little time for ornamentation. Their wisdom is their glamour. Dress becomes dirt but knowledge be enriched as the time passeth.

Appearance is temporary. Inexperienced youth rushes for glamour but experienced man values quality. They say, value of a thing lies in uses not in decoration. However, smartness is good. It awakens tidiness. But over smartness is too bad and causes downfall, since too much cunning overreaches itself. So over smartness is detrimental more than callousness even.

A smart person is sly more than intelligent. Thus all intelligent is smart but all sly may not be intelligent and thereby not smart at all. A smart person is very scrupulous. He has no moral principle. He pretends. He sounds much with tall talks and fluent talks. He works less, talks more and lies most. He has no pity at all. He is modern. He is selfish. He is self-centered. He cheats and gains through smartness. But this temporal gain is temporary. He is, as if, a bye product of jet age alias fast live.

CONCLUSIONS

Honesty is the best policy. Honest person speaks the truth. Truth is singular but lies are plural in number. He speaks the same thing. So he has nothing to suppress. So he suffers not from tension. A smart person does not speak truth always. Since lies are many, he has to keep all lies in his memory. A smart person suppresses to win the game. So he needs presence of mind. And sometimes his memory betrays and discloses his true identity as a first class liar and a finished scoundrel as well. So, an honest person is the real smart and the so-called smart is a callous one. Hence, the honest person is the wisest, brightest and greatest of all. He is divine in nature. Thus mundane smartness attains divinity and eternity touching honesty, the philosopher's s tone.
