INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform rather reveals, so it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. The present article is the outcome of creative writing meant for lay readers. As such free style is the methodology adopted so that pleasure of reading can be enjoyed by the common mass. As you know well that Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal essayist, wrote many essays and notably, Of Love, Of Friendship, Of Ambition, Of Studies, etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation i.e., his unique style kindled the imagination already in me and encouraged me as well to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.

ARTICLE

Uplift is to lift up. It is to raise. It is the act or an instance of being raised. It is to raise in rank, moral elevation, etc. It is one's voice in praise etc. It is to elevate. It is elevation, especially, moral or spiritual, or the feeling thereof. It is to raise to a higher moral, spiritual, social, or cultural level. It is an uplifting. It is any influence, movement, etc. aimed at uplifting society.

It is to elate. It is to collect e.g. a parcel. It is to draw money. In commerce, it is an increment e.g. an interim dividend. It is upheaval.

Upliftment is the act or process of lifting up. It is the act or process of raising to a higher moral, social, or cultural level. Thus it is to improve socially, culturally, morally, or the like.

It is emotional or spiritual exaltation. It is to become uplifted.

Uplift is to raise somebody's spirits, so that they feel cheerful or have hope. It is any influence, movement, etc. intended to improve society morally, culturally, etc. It is the action of uplifting somebody or the feeling of being uplifted e.g., an uplift in team morale. It is to raise hands, arms, etc. It is to lift up e.g., sing with arms uplifted.

Geologically, it is the raising of part of the earth's surface. It is an upheaval. It is a raising of land above the surrounding area. It is land so raised. This raising is a signal of earth quake that leads to tsunami. The state should take precautionary and preventive measures so that no dwelling houses, as are seen in plain area, are built there. In fact the soil of hilly region or earth quake prone zone cannot bear the pressure of huge buildings. This phenomenon should be taken seriously to avoid loss and destruction of human lives and environment as well. This project can only be successful through awareness program among the citizens. If the citizens are uplifted with this knowledge and come forward accordingly only then this movement will be successful.

Colloquially, it is a morally or spiritually elevating influence. If the citizens are enriched with moral and spiritual traits then the nation is the greatest among all. As such the tender souls of the school children should be enlightened accordingly from the very beginning, the most precious time of human life. It is support for the bust etc. from a garment.

It is designed to raise higher, usually of a brassiere holding up the breasts. It is designating a brassiere designed to lift and support the breasts. e.g. in full uplift brassiere. A beauty conscious woman does it to draw attraction especially of men. Some women use this type of brassiere consciously to allure for vulgar purpose. Some women who have reached the autumn of life practise this uplift venture more seriously rather severely to regain the beauty and charm of youth quite in vain. The manufacturing companies take the opportunity to exploit the craze and eagerness of men through the women, the target consumers.

Upliftment has wide and extensive use in real life. Man uplifts. He has to uplift. He is bound to uplift his superiority. Thus man willy-nilly uplifts, his positive sides, infinite times from cradle to grave to tackle the reality, as is faced with, for his mere existence. Someone uplifts.

He does suffer from superiority complex. He likes to be high lightened thereby remains in the fore front always. He is serious about mundane affairs. Someone uplifts not. He suffers from inferiority complex. He likes not highlighting. Rather he is more interested in divine call.

Both the liking and disliking are personality traits.

An uplifting sermon enriches a soul. A frustrated person is uplifted by the inspiring words of the optimist. Whenever a person tries to achieve something, there are two possibilities. Either he may fail or he may fail to fail. The frustrated person should simply try for the second one.

A Good Samaritan tries to uplift the lot of tribal. The tribal is very simple. They cannot cope up with the cunningness of the so-called civilisation.

The novice singers uplift their voices in song. A singer gets recognition uplifting voice. The chorus remains unevaluated for losing its singular existence in the plurality. It sacrifices for noble cause. It dedicates its private life for the benefit of public as a whole. It remains unrewarded whatever loud it may be. But it makes the environment thereby backs the singer to attain the objective. This is the unsaid story of chorus who is destined to dwell in the green room i.e. behind the curtain forever. They are born unknown. They die unknown as well.

They are like nameless thousands who built the pyramids.

A person may not know all. In fact a person may not be equally interested in all fields and be knowledgeable in all subjects. An intelligent interviewee always lifts up i.e. highlights the strong point of his knowledge suppressing the weak part. He engages the interviewers in his domain of knowledge heavily through the entire tenure of the interview. He does it in such a cunning way that the interviewers get little or no chance to eliminate him. A fool, on the other hand, cannot expose his expertise properly but highlights his weak point severely rendering the total project quite failure thereby frustrated as a whole. He fails successfully for his foolishness.

Uplift is good. It is better to help the down-trodden for uplift. It is best to help the enemy or opponent for uplift. Then there will be no enemy or enmity. All will be equal and at par. And the society will be enjoyable more. The ideal nation having no class distinction is always the best.

CONCLUSION

The proverb goes, "Pride goes before a fall". As such upliftment is not always judicious. It has positive side. Also it has negativity too. The wise men know it. As such they seldom beat their drums to advertise thereby highlight their talent. But the fools beat their drums so violently that very soon they become laughing stock instead. Thus they prove that, an empty vessel sounds much. The sun removes darkness. The moon shines. Gentle breeze cools a tired soul. The salt is a must for preparing food. All these require no intimation. They appear with their unique uplift characteristic quality already in them.
