INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform rather it reveals, so it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. The present article is the outcome of creative writing meant for lay readers. As such free style is the methodology adopted so that the pleasure of reading can be enjoyed by the common mass. As you know well that, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal writer, wrote many essays, and notably "Of Love", "Of Friendship", "Of Ambition", "Of Studies", etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation and his unique style kindled imagination and inspired me to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.

ARTICLE

Vacillation is to fluctuate in opinion or resolution. It means moving from side to side. It is the sway to and fro just like a pendulum. To be uncertain in mind is its property.

Wavering of mind i.e., to keep changing one's mind signifies vacillation. Thus to have first one emotion or opinion and then another repeatedly manifests vacillation.

Weak character vacillates but seldom a determined soul. A poor man may change its decision since he can't bear the loss. But a rich enjoys uncertainty. Emotion guides vacillation but motion checks it.

Lover always vacillates between hope and fear. She hopes that she will get her beloved.

Simultaneously she is afraid of losing him. Uncertainty is the cause of fear that always offers her anxiety. When a lover is attracted by many fiancé then she can't take judicious decision. Uncertain future always threatens her. Similarly, an unemployed if gets two identical job then he experiences inner vacillation to choose the right job.

A weak leader vacillates causing sufferings to the people. His dilly-dally practice is liable for his utter failure. Similarly, shilly-shally emotion prevents him to perform anything. A weak leader is afraid of change due to uncertainty, injustice and fear.

A doctor never prescribes of his own medicine. Similarly, a surgeon hesitates to operate his own son. In both cases they vacillate whatever strong-minded they be.

Both literate and illiterate persons vacillate. Boldness cannot conquer it. Even education cannot eradicate it totally. It is a personality trait. It carries from one generation to another. Only strong determination, constant practice and logic can control it. Vacillation is a general practice. Common mass is the most victim of this personality trait. Rigidity is a rare virtue. Very few persons can acquire it. As such the world is so infested with vacillating characters.

CONCLUSION

Vacillation is a weapon of a shrewd politician. He pretends to vacillate but he is determined to serve his self interest. Similarly, pretension is a good strategy in any game to befool the opponent through vacillation.
