

OF TRUST

¹ RETIRED EXECUTIVE MAGISTRATE (CIVIL SERVANT) & PHD STUDENT, DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT, UNIVERSITY OF CALCUTTA, INDIA.

ABSTRACT:

Trust is the belief or willingness to believe that one can rely on the goodness, strength, ability, etc of somebody or something. A good marriage is based on trust. Marriage is a long journey and trust is its only fuel having no substitute. Similarly, a doctor acquires trust through his skill. Also trust is an arrangement by which a group of people or an organization holds and controls money or property given to somebody and uses it for that person's benefit or for the public good. True love is based on trust. Reliability and dependency are all akin to trust. Thus faithfulness, simplicity, sincerity and honesty are the essential ingredients of trust. Trust disappears when these human qualities are lacking. If trust is lost everything is lost. Good will is called trust; and good will is the corner stone of any company. In case of breach of trust the first job is to identify the reason before blaming or fixing responsibility upon a person. If the ground is genuine then it is o.k. Here the question of forgiveness arises. This is possible in private but not in public business. However, wise men believe in and plead for the correctibility of human nature. Trust recovery is a Herculean task. A liar has to face a tough test to regain his status. In some societies nobody believes a liar and in some others a distrustful person gets the chance to come back in the mainstream of society.

ARTICLE

Trust is the belief or willingness to believe that one can rely on the goodness, strength, ability, etc of somebody or something. A good marriage is based on trust. Marriage as if is a long journey and trust is its only fuel having no substitute. Similarly, a doctor acquires trust through his skill.

Also trust is an arrangement by which a group of people or an organization holds and controls money or property given to somebody and uses it for that person's benefit or for the public good to encourage cultural activities or preserve old buildings.

True- love is based on trust. Reliability, dependencies are all akin to trust. Love at first sight is the outcome of trust. A true-blue is a faithful person. A true-born is one of genuine birth. A true-hearted is one who is faithful, simple, sincere and honest. Thus faithfulness, simplicity, sincerity and honesty are the essential ingredients of trust. Trust disappears when these human qualities or personality traits lack. Distrust means to have no confidence or belief in somebody or something. A stranger is distrustful. It invites misfortune when an employee be distrustful of authority.

They say when money is lost, nothing is lost; when health is lost, something is lost; but when character is lost, everything is lost. Similarly, if trust is lost everything is lost.

Because, nothing can be done if contract is broken.

Gentleman's contract is entirely based on trust. Good will is called trust. And good will is the corner stone of any company.

In case of breach of trust first job is to identify the reason before blaming or fixing responsibility upon a person. If the ground is genuine then it is o.k. Here question of forgiveness arises. It is possible in private business not in public. However, wise men believe in and plead for correctibility of human nature. Good family, good culture, good environment, etc are the store house of trust. Others are embodiment of distrust. Every community of the world has its unique characteristic traits. Thus some community has reputation of trust while some others suffers from ill-fame of distrust. And the member of each community carries either trust or distrust throughout generations through inheritance. Obviously, there is exception in each community. Man betrays to take revenge. A deprived soul disobeys. But status controls trust. A man that hails from noble birth seldom betrays. If the law is severely used distrust seldom dares to happen. A suspicious heart never trusts. It is its demerit. But bitter experiences rendered him dirt.

A man who is always feigning and pretending finds that nobody holds him in trust and nobody believes in his words. Thus he is placed in the most disadvantageous position in life.

CONCLUSIONS

Trust recovery is a Herculean task. A liar has to face tough test to regain his status.

In some society nobody believes a liar and in some other a distrustful person gets chance to come back in the mainstream of society. Such a society believes in the doctrine of repentance thereby correctibility of human character.

His hobby is Creative Writing (Nonfiction). He says:

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform rather it reveals, so it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. As you know well that, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal writer, wrote many essays, and notably "Of Love", "Of Friendship", "Of Ambition", "Of Studies", etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation and his unique style kindled imagination and inspired me to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.
